Dear Mr. Powell: COMPARATIVE AESTHETICS: A WORKBOOK

Thank you for thinking of Columbia University Press as a possible publisher for your manuscript. We do not, however, think that it is a project we could take on.

I apologize for sending you this formula reply. The number of inquiries received here has increased extraordinarily and we do not have enough staff members to respond individually to them all.

Good luck in placing your manuscript with another publisher.

Sincerely,

William F. Bernhardt
